It's "Back to School" time and everyone knows what this means. Kids will be on the streets going to and from school so we need to SLOW DOWN!

Officials from the San Antonio Police Department, Public Works and Harlandale Independent School District will be on hand to deliver the message to drivers. As schools begin the fall semester, school zones will be active and officers will be in force to issue citations to drivers who ignore the speed zones and flashing yellow lights.

Just a friendly reminder that if you are cited for the following violations, steep penalties are attached to these violations:

Violation	Fee
• Speeding in a School Zone	$202 for 1 st 10 miles over speed limit $5 for each additional mile
• Passing a Stopped School Bus	$638
• Other School Zone Violations (excluding speeding)	$202
